APRIL EXHIBITION 2008 ONE MAN'S VISION BY DAVID SOULSBY

Norman Cross Art Gallery is proud to present this much talented local artist Mr David Soulsby from Stilton Peterborough to open its' Spring 2008 programme.

David was born in the West Midlands is an artist, and also an occasional film maker and by profession a consultant geologist working for the Red Cross and has recently returned from the earthquake-devastation area of Kashmir in Pakistan and has also worked in Darfur the Sudan in Africa.

“Paintings are just another way of keeping a diary” said Pablo Picasso.

To David Soulsby that's just what his art is – it's a diary of his extensive experiences through his travels as a geologist, documented in his visionary work as an accomplished and passionate artist influenced by his creative roots in the classical surrealism of Dali, Magritte, Max Ernst, etc.

The late Beatles guitarist George Harrison acquired one of David's pictures in his collection and so does Elton John's Rocket Records company director David Croker.

David has also sold his work to American collectors.

The Norman Cross Art gallery is committed to promoting challenging and creative new works of artist's in our region and David's work meets that criteria by delivering through observation, a powerful message for those willing to open, not only their eyes but minds.

The exhibition of Original works for sale and some limited edition Giclee prints opens on Saturday 5th April and continues until April 30th so that many can catch this exhibition by a truly exceptional talent.

Please enquire at the Norman Cross Art Gallery for special Party bookings arranged by appointment only and check the gallery opening times, as times may vary on the gallery website www.normancrossgallery.com
